PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an Armed Robbery involving two male suspects who robbed two non-affiliates of their cellphones on December 19th at 10:45 PM. The non-affiliates were walking separately in the 300 block of E. 27th Street (between Barclay Street and Guilford Avenue). The two suspects, one armed with a knife, approached one of the non-affiliates who was walking alone. The other non-affiliate came to assist. Both non-affiliates were knocked to the ground and surrendered their cell phones. The two suspects fled east on E. 27th Street on foot. One nonaffiliate was taken by ambulance to a hospital and the other treated at the scene.

Suspects Descriptions:
