To keep you informed:

Campus Safety and Security is currently investigating an indecent exposure incident that occurred in the computer lab room 160 of Krieger Hall. The victim, a JHU student, was at a computer at about 4:45 pm this afternoon when the suspect, sitting on the floor behind her, exposed his genitals to her. As the female student went to get assistance, the suspect fled the lab and the building in an unknown direction. Campus Security canvassed the area for the suspect without success.

Suspect Description:

Suspect #1: Male, early 20’s, 5’9”, 160 lbs., dark complexion, bulging eyes, wearing a black hoodie, blue jeans and white sneakers

If you have any additional information or saw this suspect, please call Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777. Call Campus Security about any persons who seem suspicious to you or make you feel uncomfortable. It takes only a few minutes for a campus officer to talk to them and verify that they have legitimate reason to be on campus or inside a particular building – or have them leave if they lack one.

For more crime prevention tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security's website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html