To keep you informed:

Campus Safety and Security is currently investigating a common assault that occurred at the Homewood-Peabody-JHMI shuttle stop on St. Paul St. at 27th St. at 3:05 PM. The victim, a JHU student, was about to board the shuttle when the suspect began cursing him and struck him in the face. The victim sustained minor injuries. This incident was reported to Johns Hopkins Hospital Security at 5:08 PM. The incident will be investigated by Baltimore Police.

Suspect Description: Male, 40's, 5'7”, wearing a red hoodie and black jeans.

If you have any additional information or saw this suspect, please call Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777. Call Campus Security about any persons who seem suspicious to you or make you feel uncomfortable. It takes only a few minutes for a campus officer to talk to them and verify that they have legitimate reason to be on campus or inside a particular building – or have them leave if they lack one.

For more crime prevention tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security's website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html