To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an aggravated assault that occurred at the corner of Art Museum Drive and North Charles Street this morning (May 19th) at approximately 1:30 am. The victim, a JHU contract employee, was standing on the sidewalk, when he felt something hit his back pack and observed a vehicle speeding away. He then discovered that his backpack had been hit by a blue paintball. The suspect vehicle was described as a black two door Honda or Hyundai with black tinted windows and was last seen turning west onto 29th Street from Charles Street. The victim was not injured in this incident. The area was canvased by Campus Police with negative results.

If you have any additional information or saw this vehicle, please call Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777.

CRIME TIP: Familiarize yourself with locations of the Emergency phones along your routes and if a situation causes you to feel fear or concern, use them. For more crime prevention tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security’s website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html