Baltimore Police are investigating an attempt armed robbery which occurred at approximately 2:33 AM today (July 31, 2018) in the 300 Block of E. 32nd Street (between Abell Avenue and Barclay Street). Suspect approached a contract employee displayed a semi-automatic handgun. Employee began to run and the suspect fell to the ground. JHU officers located the suspect and gave chase. He was last seen running in the 3300 Block of Old York Road then east into an alley. Baltimore Police and Campus Safety and Security canvassed the area with negative results.

Suspect Description: Black Male, 18-20 yrs., 5’-7” to 5’-8”, thin build, dark complexion, wearing a grey hooded jacket, black bandana with white skulls, black pants, white tennis shoes armed with a semi-automatic handgun.

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible. For more crime information tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security’s website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html

Everyone is reminded to contact Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777 or Baltimore City Police at 911 immediately.