PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

Campus Safety and Security is currently investigating an indecent exposure incident that occurred at the Marylander Apartments, located at 3501 St. Paul Street. The victim, a female JHU student and two non-affiliate males, were in the basement study room earlier tonight at about 11:30pm (August 19th) when the suspect, sitting at a table near them, exposed his genitals and masturbated. As the female student and two non-affiliate males left the room, the suspect fled the rear of the building onto Calvert Street.

Suspect Description: black male, 25-30 years old, 5'8", muscular build, dark complexion, wearing red shorts and blue t-shirt.

If you have any additional information or saw this suspect, please call Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777. Call Campus Security about any persons who seem suspicious to you or make you feel uncomfortable. It takes only a few minutes for a campus officer to talk to them and verify that they have legitimate reason to be on campus or inside a particular building – or have them leave if they lack one.

For more crime prevention tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security’s website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html

The Johns Hopkins University
Homewood Campus Safety and Security
410-516-4600