To keep you informed:

The Baltimore Police Department are investigating an armed robbery that occurred in the 2800 block of St. Paul Street (between 28th and 29th Streets) at 6:35 AM on September 11, 2019. Two non-affiliates were walking south on St. Paul Street when they were approached by the suspect who pulled a handgun from his jacket. The suspect stated “Give me your stuff or I’ll kill you”. One of the victims dropped her backpack and the second victim gave the suspect his cellphone and wallet. Suspect last seen running south on St. Paul Street. Both victims were not physically injured.

The suspect is described as a black male, in his 20’s, 5’-4”, wearing blue jeans, dark quilted hooded winter jacket, armed with a hand gun.

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.
