To keep you informed:

The Baltimore Police Department is investigating an armed robbery that occurred at 3121 N. Calvert Street (between 31st and 32nd Streets) at 8:50 p.m. on July 6, 2019. Two non-affiliates, a male and a female, were sitting on their front porch at this address when the suspect walked up the steps and pointed a knife. The suspect demanded money and then patted down both victims. He removed a wallet from the male victim and fled southward in the 3100 block of N. Calvert.

The suspect is described as a black male, wearing a black shirt, black pants, with red trunks underneath, and black shoes. Suspect has a short afro hairstyle, is of slim build, about 5 ft 9 to 10 inches, and has a dark brown complexion.

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.
