To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an unarmed robbery that occurred in the 2600 block of St. Paul Street (between 26th and 27th Street) January 6, 2019, at about 9:14 PM. Four suspects exited an unknown model vehicle forcing a Grad Student inside. Suspects took a cellphone and wallet from the student, drove to two ATM machines, in an attempt to get money. The student was later forced from the vehicle after being struck and kicked. The student was transported to the hospital by a Baltimore City Ambulance.

Suspects Descriptions: Four Males – no further information

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.
