BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT: Baltimore Police are investigating an unarmed robbery of a JHU Grad student. The victim was walking east in the unit block of W. University Pkwy, walking towards Charles Street. Three subjects exited a parked vehicle and approached the victim. Suspect #1 asked the victim if she had a dollar. When the victim advised she did not, the suspects attempted to forcibly take the victim’s purse from her. The victim’s cell phone fell out of the purse and was picked up by suspect #1 who then demanded that the victim give up her purse. A tussle then resulted in which the suspect tried to forcibly take the purse but was unsuccessful. At one point the suspect struck the victim in the face. All suspects returned to the vehicle, which then drove from the scene, headed west on University Pkwy.

CRIME TIP: Should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.
