PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are investigating an armed carjacking that occurred in the 3000 Block of Lovegrove Street (between 30th and 31st Streets) at approximately 8:20pm on March 10, 2020. A female graduate student was exiting her vehicle, a 2007 gold Toyota Highlander, when she was approached by three suspects. One suspect displayed a black revolver and demanded her keys and cellphone. The victim complied and the suspects entered her vehicle, drove north on Lovegrove stopping in the 3100 block to pick up two female juveniles before continuing northward. The victim was not injured. Baltimore Police and Campus Safety and Security checked the area for the suspects with negative results. The vehicle was subsequently recovered by Baltimore Police unoccupied.

Suspects Descriptions:

Suspect 1: Male juvenile, wearing a white hoodie, and armed with a black revolver, no further description

Suspect 2: Male juvenile wearing a black hoodie, no further description

Suspect 3: Male, juvenile no further description

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible. Stay in well-lit areas and walk with friends when out and about, and avoid secluded areas.
