To keep you informed:

In reference to the previously reported assault, Campus Safety and Security has received information from the Baltimore Police that they are investigating an armed robbery of a non-affiliate. This incident occurred on January 8, 2020 at approximately 7:20pm in the area of the 2900 block of Cresmont Avenue (between 29th and 30th Streets). The victim indicated that she was approached by five-seven (5-7) juveniles, one of whom displayed a handgun. The suspects then stole a cell phone, a credit card and cash from the victim. The same suspects who were arrested for the previous assault have also been identified as the suspects in this armed robbery. The suspects remain in custody and will be charged. The victim was not injured. The Baltimore Police are investigating if these same suspects have committed other crimes in the area.

Suspect information:

5-7 juveniles, males and females. No further information.
