PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are investigating an attempted commercial robbery that occurred on January 18, 2019 at the Potbelly Restaurant, located at 3201B St. Paul Street, at 6:20 p.m. A suspect entered the restaurant, waited until customers had left, and then approached the counter and pointed a handgun at the store employee. The suspect demanded, “Give me all your money.” The employee had trouble opening the cash register and then screamed, at which time the suspect ran from the counter and out the door, leaving the premises in an unknown direction.

Suspect is a male in dark clothing, 50-60 years of age, 5’4 to 5’8 in height, and possessed a purple and black handgun.

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, and observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible. For more information tips, please visit Campus Safety and Security website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html. Everyone is reminded to contact Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777 or Baltimore City Police at 911 immediately.
