PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

An alleged intentional drugging is reported to have occurred during a party at the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity house located at 2900 Wyman Parkway the night of Saturday, October 30th. The incident has been reported to the Baltimore Police and is under investigation by the university.

Here are some tips that may help you prevent yourself from becoming the victim of a drugging incident:

- Always think twice before consuming a drink that was not prepared in front of you, and never share drinks.
- Try to attend parties and events with known groups or other friends.
- Never leave your drink unattended or let it out of your view when being filled.
- Keep an eye out for your friends and even those you do not know.
- If you begin feeling tired, dizzy, sick, or otherwise different, let a friend know and have them leave the area with you as soon as possible.
- If you think you have been the victim of such an incident contact the police, Johns Hopkins Public Safety, or the Office of Institutional Equity.
