To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an unarmed carjacking that occurred in the 3100 block of Abell Avenue, on December 31, 2021, at about 3:30PM. As a non-affiliate approached their vehicle, which was running and unoccupied, an unknown male suspect pushed the non-affiliate away from the vehicle. The suspect then entered the vehicle and drove away. The vehicle was last observed traveling eastbound on 30th Street. Baltimore Police and Campus Public Safety searched the area with negative results. There were no injuries sustained during the incident.

Suspect Description
Male, 20-25 years, 5’8”, wearing a black puffy coat and black skull cap

Stolen Vehicle Description
2020 Mazda CX5, black in color

Campus Public Safety would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone that should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible.

For further information and tips, please visit the JHU Campus Public Safety website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html. If observing suspicious activity, everyone is reminded to contact Campus Public Safety (410-516-7777) or Baltimore Police (911) immediately.

Johns Hopkins University
Campus Public Safety
410-516-4600