Baltimore Police are investigating an armed carjacking that occurred in the 2800 block of St. Paul Street (between 28th Street and 29th Street) at approximately 2:05 am on August 26, 2021. The non-affiliate victim had exited his vehicle (Honda Pilot, Charcoal Gray) and was walking on St. Paul Street when he was approached by four male suspects. Two of the suspects displayed dark handguns. One of the suspects told the victim “give me your keys or I will shoot”. The keys were handed over. The suspects then got into the vehicle and drove away. The vehicle was last seen heading south on St. Paul Street. The victim was not injured. The Baltimore Police and Campus Safety and Security checked the area for the suspects with negative results.

Suspect Description:

Four teenage males. One male was wearing a white tank top shirt and black shorts. No further information.

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects.
