PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

Updated

To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are investigating a robbery that occurred today February 11, 2022, in the 3600 block of St. Paul Street. At about 5:58pm, a non-affiliate was walking on St. Paul Street when two to three male subjects approached him from behind and demanded money. The victim was struck in the back and fell to the ground dropping his phone. The suspects fled the area in an unknown direction taking the victim’s phone and money with them. Baltimore Police and campus officers canvassed the area but were not able to locate the suspects. The victim refused medical attention.

Suspects Description:

2-3 Males, no further descriptions

Campus Safety and Security would like all JHU affiliates to be aware of this incident and remind everyone that should you find yourself the victim of a robbery, do not resist and do not pursue suspects. Always remember to stay calm, listen, observe intently, surrender any requested property and report the crime as soon as possible. For further information and tips, please visit the JHU Campus Safety and Security website at http://security.jhu.edu/crime-prevention-tips/index.html. Everyone is reminded to contact Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777 or Baltimore City Police at 911 immediately.
