PUBLIC SAFETY ADVISORY

To keep you informed:

Baltimore Police are currently investigating an incident that occurred in the restroom of a non-residential campus building on January 6, 2022, at about 4:00PM. At this time, a male subject was believed to have been observed sticking a cell phone under the restroom stall of an affiliate. There was no communication or physical contact between the male subject and the affiliate. Upon exiting the restroom, the affiliate reported this incident to Campus Public Safety. Baltimore Police and Campus Public Safety canvassed the immediate area with negative results.

Suspect Description

Male, dreadlocks, dark hooded sweatshirt, dark pants with multi-colored patches

While we are still assessing the report, the type of conduct that was reported is abhorrent, would violate University policy as well as the law, and is incongruent with our Hopkins community values.

RESOURCES:

Need support? We are here for you. Incidents that affect our community can be upsetting, including for those not directly involved.

You can contact a Confidential Resource:

- Sexual Assault Help Line. Talk with a counselor for support and resources surrounding sexual assault. At the University, confidential counselors are available at University’s Sexual Assault Help Line (410-516-7333).

- Center for Health Education & Well-Being. Reach out to Alyse Campbell (she/her), Associate Director of Student Well-Being: Gender Based Violence Prevention and Response. Alyse is a confidential resource for all JHU students, learners, and trainees. Acampb39@jh.edu, 410.516.5133.

- The Sexual Assault Resources Unit (SARU). SARU is a private student group that runs a peer support line for those affected by sexual assault and individuals who are concerned about a friend or loved one. To contact the SARU support line call 410-516-7887 or email at jhusaru@gmail.com.
• Other confidential resources.
  o JHU confidential resources:  https://oie.jhu.edu/confidential-resources/
  o Off-campus confidential resources:
    https://sexualmisconduct.jhu.edu/policies-laws/Confidential-Resources

You can make a report (discreet but non-confidential):

• Report to Campus Security or Baltimore City Police. Timely and accurate reporting is critical to crime prevention. Contact Campus Safety and Security at 410-516-7777 or Baltimore City Police at 911 immediately to report any suspicious person(s) or activity. You can bring a friend or contact SARU for support in making a report.

• Title IX Coordinator/Office of Institutional Equity (titleixcoordinator@jhu.edu; (410) 516-8075; Online Report Form). The University prohibits sexual misconduct which includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, relationship violence, and stalking, as explained in the Sexual Misconduct Policy and Procedures. You are welcome to bring a friend, family member, or advocate for support when you make a report.

Johns Hopkins University
Campus Public Safety
410-516-4600